

VAT REGULATIONS (FROM 1 JAN 2011)

Foreign companies registered in the EU:

Fair Media International AB will not add VAT on the invoices to companies who are registered in the EU and have a valid VAT number searchable in VIES. Reverse Charge applies for EU registered companies – VAT should be declared in the respective country.

For companies registered in the EU but do not have a valid VAT number searchable in VIES, Fair Media International AB will add VAT on the invoices.

A VAT number is valid when it is included in the registry of the European Commission and is showed on this website: http://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/vies/vieshome.do

Foreign companies registered outside of the EU:

For companies outside of the EU, Fair Media International AB will not add any VAT on the invoices.

Companies registered in Sweden:

Swedish companies pay 25% VAT.

For more information, please visit the Swedish tax authority's website or call +46 8 564 851 60 (0771-567 567 from Sweden).

Fair Media International AB warns companies for Expo Guide and Fair Guide.com!

Expo-Guide and Fairguide.com/Construct Data Verlag regularly publicize their services to exhibitors at events, primarily in Europe. Both companies use a misleading form, which resembles an organizers' Free Catalogue Listing Service, inviting exhibitors to sign and return the form for an entry in an on-line directory. Doing so contracts the purchaser into the three-year, non-retractable agreement. Non-payment is then followed by aggressive debt collecting by Premium Recovery.

Expo-Guide and Fairguide.com/Construct Data Verlag have no connection with exhibition organizers or any of their events but they deliberately target exhibitors who are about to exhibit across Europe.

We have also heard about a company that say that they sell the attendees email lists from our exhibitions, this is simply not true and we strongly advice that you do not encourage this as it is a scam.
